

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3505 - SB 3606

February 16, 2012

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes and encourages local education agencies (LEAs) to partner with individuals, community and faith-based organizations, and non-profit or for-profit entities to implement programs that will improve parent involvement in their child's education. Encourages LEAs to develop low-cost or no-cost parenting classes with community organizations. Authorizes LEAs to solicit private donations to fund parental involvement reward programs. Directs LEAs to encourage parents who attend classes to be role models for other non-attending parents and for those whose children are entering school for the first time.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumption:

- LEAs that choose to implement such programs will do so with private donations or through in-kind donations with established partnerships. Any increase in permissive local expenditures will be not significant.

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
